

Key Insights:

Lok Sabha Elections 2024

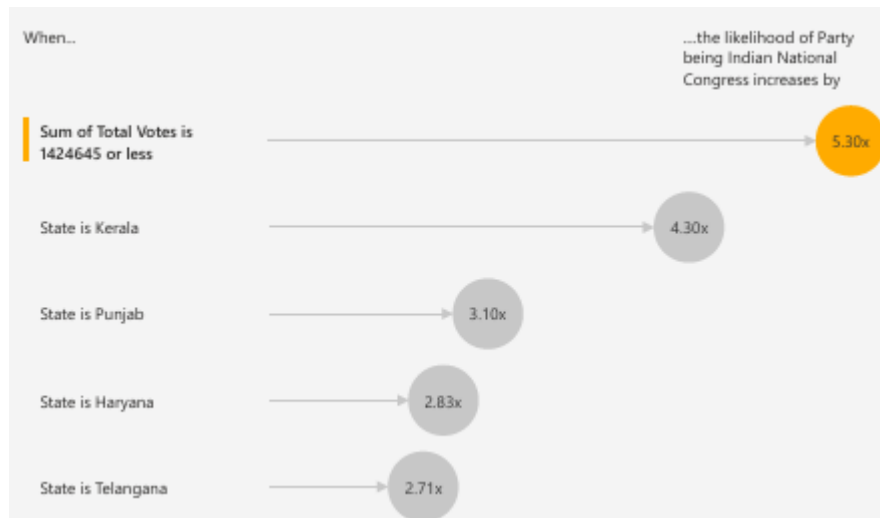

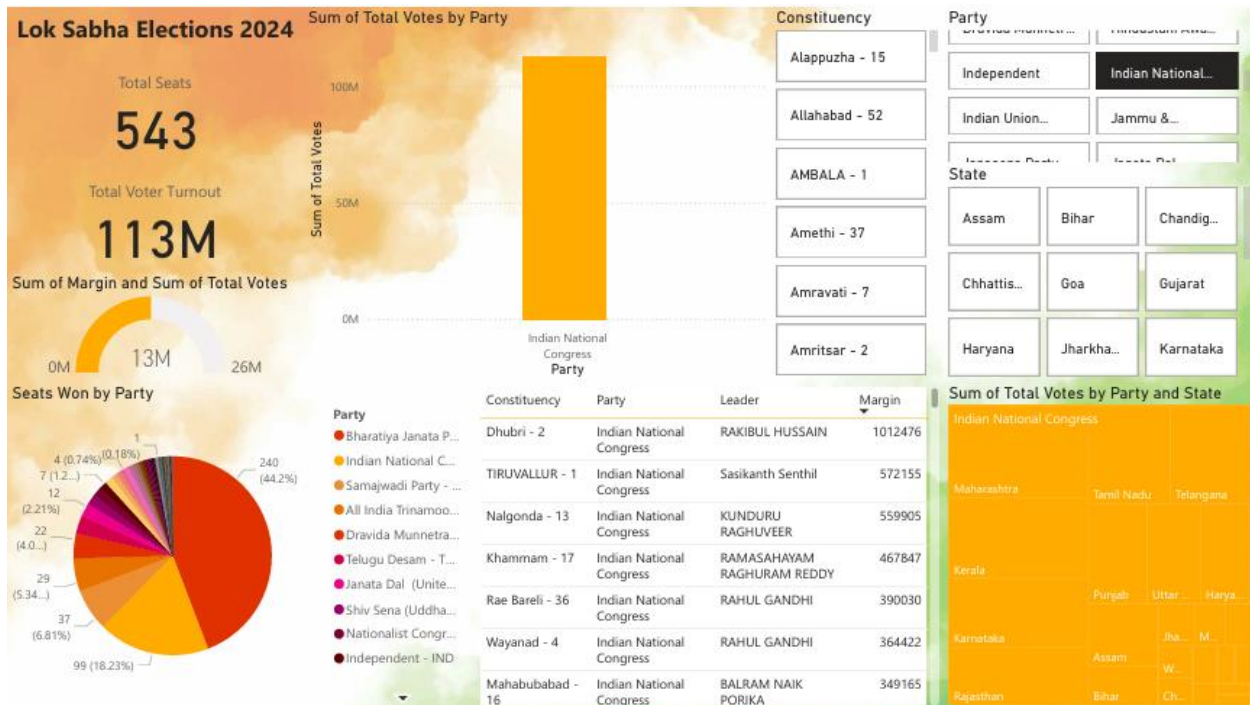

By Anubhab Mishra

- Dominant Party: The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) emerged as the party with the highest number of seats, securing 240 seats.
- Runner-up: The Indian National Congress (INC) followed the BJP with a total of 99 seats.
- Voter Turnout: The total voter turnout for the Lok Sabha Elections 2024 was approximately 654 million (65.4 crores), representing nearly half of India's population.

- Regional Success: The BJP achieved a landslide victory in the states of Madhya Pradesh, Gujarat, Delhi, Uttarakhand, Odisha, and Chhattisgarh, with a seat share exceeding 90%.
- Voter Demographics: The BJP was more likely to win in constituencies with voter populations exceeding 1.16 million.
- Votes Secured: Nationwide, the BJP received a total of 293 million votes. The BJP candidate with the highest winning margin was Shankar Lalwani from the Indore constituency, who won by a margin of 1.1 million votes.

- INC Dominance: The INC established dominance in the states of Kerala, Punjab, Haryana, and Telangana, securing over 50% of the seats.
- Constituency Size Advantage: The INC had a visible advantage in constituencies with voter populations less than 1.4 million.

- Significant Upset: In Uttar Pradesh, the BJP faced a major setback, with the Samajwadi Party capturing 37 seats.
- Largest Voter Turnout: Uttar Pradesh also had one of the largest voter turnouts, accounting for almost 13.6% of the total voters.

These findings provide a comprehensive overview of the electoral performance and voter trends observed in the 2024 Lok Sabha Elections.